May you listen to your longing to be free.

May the frames of your belonging be large enough for the dreams of your soul.

May you arise each day with a voice of blessing whispering in your heart that something good will happen today.

May you find a harmony between your soul and your life. . . .

May there be kindness in your gaze when you look within.

May your angel free you from the prisons of guilt, fear, disappointment, and despair.

And, may you allow the wild beauty of the invisible world to gather you, mind you, and embrace you in belonging.—AMEN.
