And just as each are reminded to live out the divine mystery of holiness that is inherent in human life, so too may this body live-out the will of the people it represents. People. Not voters. Not consumers. Not business interests. Not teachers or corporations, or students or construction workers. Not prison guards or prisoners. Not Latino or black or Asian American or Caucasian. People. Humans imbued with the spirit of the divine, pursuing progress and fruition, aspiring toward goodness. People who expect integrity, ingenuity, thought, and care on behalf of all.
